A Taste of County Clare's Tea Tradition

In County Clare, tea has long been a symbol of hospitality, comfort, and community.

Introduced to Ireland in the 1700s, it quickly became part of everyday life — from turf-fire cottages to gatherings after Mass.

A simple cup of tea brought warmth to every table and every conversation.

At Shanaway Bistro, we celebrate this rich heritage with a fresh twist. Our afternoon tea features a carefully chosen selection of organic Pukka teas, renowned for their vibrant natural blends. Favourites include the soothing Three Mint, a refreshing blend of spearmint, field mint, and peppermint, and the comforting Elderberry & Echinacea, perfect for unwinding.

Paired with our seasonal bakes and handmade savouries, it's a timeless ritual — reimagined with a taste of nature and a touch of Clare.
